Health and strength carry us through langers and make us safe in the presence of penil Disease germs do no harm in a healthy body. Agerm is not a big thing, and it is only physical wealness that makes it dangerous A perfectly strong man with rich, pure blood, has nothing to fear from geims. He may breathe in the bacilli of consumption with impurities that may conic into the body, but if there is a weak spot where the germs may find an entrance to the tissues, then the trouble begins. Disease germs propagate with lightning like rapidity Once in the blood they quickly fill the whole body. The only way to get rid of them is to kill them. This is what Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is for It purifies the blood. That Health and strength

It assists in the discovery in perfect condition. It stimulates the secretion of digestive fluids so prometing assimilation and nutrition. It fills the blood full of healthy and corpuscies. It purifies and enriches every drop of blood in the whole body and so supplies the tissues with the food they need. It builds up strong healthy flesh and puts the whole body into a disease resisting state.

Nine tenths of all human ailments core from the time cause—impurity in the blood. I the almost any disease you please and trace the cause of it—you will find it in the blood. Purify and enrich the blood and you remove the cause and so you care the disease incurrably and infillibly. BRYAN TALKS TO BIMETALLISTS.

At a meeting held at Lincoln, Nebraska, last Saturday evening under the auspices of the Bimetallic Club, the Traveling Men's Bryan Club and the Bryan Home Guards, W. J. Bryan made his first formal speech since the election. The audience filled the opera house and an overflow meeting was held in another hall, which Bryan addressed later in the evening. He suggested that the Bryan Clubs take a new name and become silver clubs or bimetallic clubs, so as to become entirely impersonal. No one could then say that the agitation was in the interest of any person, and all could recognize it as being for a great cause. When he was a candidate, for Congress his platform declared for free silver, against whom he was running who lives were lost. agreed with him on the money question.

Mr. Bryan stated that Thomas Jefferjealousy and not in confidence, and Congress by 400 majority. that confidence is everywhere the more intelligent citizenship and more have been arrested for the crime. intelligent citizenship gives us better government. He never advised those discussing he advised the gold men to do the same thing, because if they would discuss more and think more and have joint debates with the silver by which they came. men, because if they can convince our cessfully assert it. If country presperous under the gold laws of nature and give points to all the writers on political economy. The Republicans went before the laboring men and told them low prices were great blessings, because wages would go farther, and then went before the farmer and told him the gold standard and confidence would restore prosperity and restore prices."

The meeting was as enthusiastic as any held before election, and though Lincoln is the Republican stronghold ska, Bryan bas thousands of staunch supporters at his home, where

Indiana. Kentucky North Dakota Fegon..... West Virginia.... The total electoral votes of these States is 53, and the total McKinley majorities 48,300. A change of 2,510 votes in California, 1,255 in Delaware, 10,510 in Indiana, 250 in Kentucky,

2,510 in North Dakota, 1,505 in Oregon and 6,010 in West Virginia would have given 58 more electoral votes to Bryan, which added to the 173 which he received in other States, would have made his strength in the electoral college 226, or two more than enough to have given him the Presidency. Four years ago Harrison received

145 electoral votes, which is about 30 less than Bryan's vote in 1896, yet Cleveland, who defeated Harrison for the Presidency, will go out of office representing a party that did not carry a county or even elect a constable in the United States.

Mr. Hanus with millions of money at his disposal to corrupt votes and ninetenths of the banks, all of the trusts, all of the railroads and nearly all the corporations at his back, succeeded in electing McKinley, not by a land slide as our Republican friends claim, but by the small margin of less than 25,000 votes in seven States. Mr. Henna, it is true, succeeded in piling up large ma jorities for the gold trust candidate in the large cities, but if the farmers had stood by Bryan in California, Kentucky, Oregon, West Virginia and North Dakots, Hanna's coercion and corruption in the cities and manufact uring centers, would not have elected his candidate.

IN DANGER FROM UNDERTOW

How a Quick Witted Bostonian Saved Three Lives.

Here is a story which is too much to the credit of two ladies and a gentleman to be wholly suppressed. They are all strong swimmers and can battle with the waves in valiant fashion. They chanced to be in the sea at one time and on a shore where the underow is irresistible a short distance out. The man suddenly folt himself in that strong, terrible, outward pull of the waters of the mighty deep. He understood mmediately that he and his companous would shortly be no more unless by tremendous, instant, individual exertion they pulled for the shore. In that treacherous current not one could help mother. How to get "these girls" ashoro without terrifying them and putting them in still greater danger through their fears was the problem of that terrible moment.

The man solved it like a hero. He made a sign, a sound of personal distress and began swimming inshore, His compenions in the waves heard and saw his white face. Both believed, as he meant them to, that he was threatened with cramps and swam inshore, too, calling out obserful, encouraging words to him as they pulled for the shore, assuring him that he would soon be all right; that they could get him in safely if he really should give out, and other words to that effect. It was not love before this way not mostal accrease. long before this man of mortal courage stood upon the beach in safety, and those he had thus rescued from death stood on either side of him and heard what it would have meant for them all to have spent another moment in that outrushing tide.

It was a noncombatant in the strife for life who remarked: "That fellow was a great philosopher. He knew how to appeal to the new woman when swim-ming her strongest against the old or-DRS. GEORGE & KATHERINE FEE, der of things. He only offered his plea to the 'eternal womanly,' to woman's maternal need of taking care of the sick or the helpless. Those girls will probably always think it was their own physical strength and powers that rescued them from death by drowning, but it was really the 'eternal womanly,' bent upon helping one they believed in danger and need."—Boston Transcript.

> He Ate Cabbage and Lived. Wonderful are the whims of the human stomach. What kills one man gives C. Gulline President another life. One of the strangest cases of a craving for food on the part of a sick man is narrated by Mrs. Hazen in "Our Army Nurses." She was at the time (1864) nurse in the Columbian hospital at Washington. Among her patients was a "boy"-though he was a veteran of four years' standing-who had come to the hospital several months before with a wounded knee. This is her strango story:

The surgeons had held many examinations. He was failing rapidly; could not retain anything, even cold water causing hemorrhage of the stomach.

one morning.
"He can live but a few days at the longest," was the answer, "and may die in a few hours."

"Then, doctor, please let him have what he wants while he does live."

"I give him into your hands, Miss Titus. Do what you please for him." The bandages were at once removed, as he had complained that they were uncomfortable. Then, as soon as the. something green, if only "boiled grass. When the cabbage was cooked, I carried him some, with older vinegar, and fed

He ate all there was on the plate, asked for more, which was brought, and still a third and fourth plate, till he had eaten the whole cabbage.

From that dinner, in May, he began to improve, and on the 14th of June I started with him on a stretcher for his home in Pennsylvania, as his life even then depended upon his diet, and such meals as he are would have made a well

He recovered, but had a stiff knee.

Tolatoi Answers Questions. An admirer of the great Russian recently wrote to him asking a reply to these questions:

First.-Ought a man of medium intelligence to express publicly and propagate the principles of life which he considers to be truths?

Second.—Is it worth while to try to know one's self perfectly? Third.—By what principles can man know at a decisive moment whethor it is really his conscience which prompts him or whether it is only his reasonings corrupted by natural weak-

To the first two Tolstoi said "Yes." To the third he replied that "reason is given to us by God, and therefore it must he listened to where conscience has to decide."-New York World.

English Versus German Universities, If the tree is to be judged by its fruits, we shall find it difficult to dispate the proposition that university education, at all events in so far as it bears upon the physical sciences, is somehow more satisfactorily managed in Germany than in England. The theoretical and technical output of Germany is far larger, more regular and of better quality for practical purposes than our own, the proof being that Germany is rapidly monopolizing the higher and more lacrative branches of manufacture, and in addition is exporting large numbers of technical experts.
